

Kent Forests access road

UPM Tilhill

Ovendens were selected by UPM Tilhill to construct new access roads in the Kent forests to allow harvesting of the timber.

Roads were constructed, on geotextile, using locally sourced clean bricks and overlain with recycled type 1 road stone.

Loading and stacking areas were also required to enable articulated lorries to access the woodland, which in turn had tree trunks laid across to prevent parking by unauthorised users.

OVENDEN
DIG IT > LOAD IT > CLEAR IT > MOVE IT

Call 01304 849238 | www.ovendens.com